

Strategy in Your Parental Alienation Case

1. Decide: This involves timing your case perfectly, choosing venue, opting for custody/support vs. divorce, consider the impact on whole life, waiting it out/delayed gratification,
2. Get Knowledge, Support (you will probably have to work with an attorney)
3. Know the Law, but More Importantly Understand Court Procedure (motions, Show Causes, etc.)
4. Identify the Signs, Early as Possible (know what they are)
5. Notice the Patterns (take note of specific patterns)
6. Collect your Proof (gather evidence in any form, you only get one shot)
7. Start to Plot, Contempt, Modification (look at everything you have and start to plot)
8. Get other Agencies Involved, Use Other Areas of Law (CPS, PD, Social services, etc.)
9. Employ Tactical Measures (what can you do in your daily life)
10. Get Professional Help (therapists for all involved)
11. Recruit Help from the Experts (PA experts)
12. Get your Child's Voice Heard (GAL, AFC, LFC)
13. Reunification Therapy (find the right fit)
